

The Coalition for a Healthy Community-Oxford invites you to:

The 2008 Underage Drinking Prevention:

Town Hall Meeting

7:00 p.m. April 2, 2008- Talawanda High School Choir Room

The Oxford Town Hall Meeting is part of a national effort to encourage individuals, families and communities to discuss strategies that address underage drinking in the Oxford community, including Miami University. We will address: Recommendation 2 from Empowering our Future: Ohio's Recommendations to Prevent Childhood/ Underage Drinking: Enforcement agencies working with state, county, local government entities and their community partners should consistently enforce current underage liquor laws.

Open to all including:

- Law enforcement and judicial representatives
- Oxford businesses and merchants
- Miami University students
- Miami University parents
- Talawanda School District parents
- Talawanda High School students

*Come early to enjoy refreshments, learn about Town Hall Meetings in other communities and view a history of Oxford alcohol policies. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.
